NEWSLETTER OF THE
ARMANDS BEACH LEISURE GROUP
No. 101 SPRING 2018

Spring is upon us for 2018 which means it is time to get ready for the beach. Forget your swimwear but make sure you have plenty of sunscreen, your sun shade is in working order and you have your beach towel in your beach pack, along with your water bottle and sun hat. Then get game enough to have a quick dip in the cool springtime ocean. Of course you can also watch the whales at play on their southern migration.

As Armands Beach is backed by bushland, it is important to make sure you are being fire safe by not lighting BBQ fires in these drought conditions that we are experiencing. Just enjoy nature in nature's uniform.

Winter has been very quiet, which is to be expected but Ashley and Dave inform me that on days that have been warm enough, Armands Beach has had visitors just dropping in for a look as they pass through town on their travels.

The usual trip to the "High Country" to celebrate Christmas in July was a fantastic event and enjoyed by all. Unfortunately Jim was unwell and has asked the following message be passed on from him and Helen: "I would like to thank everyone who helped out at the enjoyable Christmas in July when I was ill and taken to hospital." Jim spent some time in Canberra Hospital but is fit and well again and no doubt we will see him and Helen at our spring dinner so he can show us his scar.

Our Autumn Leaves dinner at the Murrah Hall was a fabulous evening. It was well attended with good company and excellent food served by our naked chefs, Ian and Thelma. Our dinners are becoming more popular again and why wouldn't they with people enjoying the atmosphere and company of like-minded people in nature's uniform.

An attractive blonde married four men – a millionaire, a film producer, a hairdresser and a taxi driver. One day someone asked why she'd married them all.

"It's like this," the woman replied. "I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready and four to go."

Saturday night 29th September is our Strip into Spring dinner at the Murrah Hall. For those that want to travel and enjoy our company, this is a long weekend in NSW with Monday 1st October being the Labour Day holiday. The menu will be an excellent meal cooked in camp ovens in the fireplace inside. All the food, except Ian's Weet-Bix, will be supplied by us including breakfast of sausages, bacon and eggs with any left overs taken to the beach on Sunday. Of course we will be staying overnight as we don't drink and drive do we? So bring your own bed to sleep on or in plus there is room for a van or two in the car park. This is all for the maximum price of $30 per person. If you want to bring nibbles, please do. You must also bring your own drinks. Please RSVP by Wednesday 26th September.

Murrah Hall is undergoing some renovations, however it is ours for the 29th. It will be heated to nude temperature for our comfort.
